Appendix 6

Aerial Photography of the Southern Portion of the Texas Coast with Locations of Structures and Points of Interest

The aerial photographs of the coast from Port O’Connor to the mouth of the Rio Grande were downloaded from the www.texmaps.com website and are displayed courtesy of Texmaps.com. The location of the structures and points of interest along the coast were identified using the Texas County Highway maps on the web at the Texas Department of Transportation/University of Texas in Austin site: http://txdot.lib.utexas.edu/.

Map of Texas Coastal Counties. The aerial coastal photographs in this appendix cover the counties of the studies, i.e. from Calhoun to Cameron county (map from the Texas General Land Office website: http://www.glo.state.tx.us/coastal/cmpdoc/jpegs/guidance-czb-sm.jpg).
